Enclosed are examples of bills for the same type procedure of other patients and their insurance companies [sic] interpretation of fair and reasonable as shown by the amounts paid.”
2. Respondent: Letter dated 07/10/02
“The Requestor has the burden of proving it is entitled under the statutory standards to additional reimbursement.”

IV. FINDINGS

1. Based on Commission Rule 133.307(d) (1) (2), the only date of service eligible for review is 05/08/01.
2. This decision is being written based on the documentation that was in the case file when it was assigned to this Medical Dispute Resolution Officer.
3. The amount in dispute is $5,288.65 per the disputed services table.
4. Per the EOB, this is a fair and reasonable reimbursement dispute.

V. RATIONALE

Medical Review Division's rationale:

The medical documentation indicates the services were performed at an ambulatory surgery center. Commission Rule 134.401 (a)(4) states ASCs, "shall be reimbursed at a fair and reasonable rate..."

Section 413.011 (b) of the Texas Labor Code states, "Guidelines for medical services must be fair and reasonable and designed to ensure the quality of medical care and to achieve effective medical cost control. The guidelines may not provide for payment of a fee in excess of the fees charged for similar treatment of an injured individual of an equivalent standard of living and paid by that individual or by someone acting on that individual's behalf. The Commission shall consider the increased security of payment afforded by this subtitle in establishing the fee guidelines."

Rule 133.307 (g) (3) (D) places certain requirements on the provider when supplying documentation with the request for dispute resolution. The provider is to discuss, demonstrate, and justify that the payment amount being sought is fair and reasonable. Commission Rule 133.304 (i)(1-4) places certain requirements on the carrier when reducing the billed amount to fair and reasonable. Regardless of the carrier's methodology or lack thereof, or a timely or untimely response, the burden remains on the provider to show that the amount of reimbursement requested is fair and reasonable.

The provider has submitted EOBs from other carriers as examples of "fair and reasonable" reimbursement for same or similar services. These EOBs were paid at varying percentages of the billed amount. The willingness of some carriers to provide reimbursement at or near the billed amount does not necessarily document that the billed amount is fair and reasonable and does not show how effective medical cost control is achieved, a criteria identified in Sec. 413.011 (b) of the Texas Labor Code. Therefore, based on the evidence available for review, the Requestor has not established entitlement to additional reimbursement. No further reimbursement is recommended.

The above Findings and Decision are hereby issued this 15th day of August 2002.
